Loyola University Rome Center 1994-1995
This Yearbook is dedicated to President John J. Piderit, S.J.

With great appreciation and thanks we dedicate our 1994-95 yearbook to President John J. Piderit, S.J. as he begins his service with Loyola University Chicago. From February 14-20, our new president took time to visit the Rome Center and see first hand what students experience while studying abroad. The interest and enthusiasm he exhibited while interacting with the students and faculty during his visit should be an inspiration to all.

And.....
Dr. Thomas Bennett

Dr. Thomas Bennett has had a long and illustrious career in the field of education. In the time between receiving his bachelor’s degree and completing his master’s degree in political science at Notre Dame, he served in the U.S. Navy. Prior to coming to Loyola, he spent eight years at Marquette University, where he served as chair of the political science department and earned tenure. We are honored that he chose to spend the past two years with the students and faculty of the Rome Center. As his wife says, “He wanted to be Mr. Chips.” Because the Bennetts sent three of their six children to the Rome Center, Dr. Bennett is seasoned at understanding the needs of students here. He teaches his political science classes with skill and enthusiasm. Throughout his twenty-six years at the university, he has served as director of research, chair of the political science department, and professor.

We appreciate the time he has given us, and wish him well in his future endeavors, which include traveling and possibly teaching in Rota, Spain or participating in the Space Aid program. The Rome Center community will miss Dr. Bennett immensely, and with this yearbook, bid him and his hat collection a fine farewell.
Faculty and Administration

Rome Center students and faculty are proud that "John P. Felice, founder, director and driving force behind the Rome Center for its entire 33-year history" was this year's recipient of a very special award for excellence in administration. On February 18, 1995 Father John J. Piderit presented John P. Felice with the Richard Award.

I nostri Italiani
Where did all the time go?

Changes, making us who we become
All our friends, relatives and those Kodak moments
Roma, the Eternal City as our playground
People, a kaleidoscope of personalities
Education, it’s never ending...

Dreams, living them to the fullest
International adventures, “I travel, therefore, I am.”
Europe, it can do wonders for the soul
Memories, to last a lifetime

If we learn one lesson while here at the Rome Center, it could be summed up in three words: SEIZE THE DAY! Learn it. Live it. Don’t forget it.

Well, in my typical mode of procrastination, I am writing in thanks to all those people who helped to put this book together. It would be unfair of me to attribute certain tasks to certain students because everyone did EVERYTHING! Talk about a multi-talented staff. The cast includes: Kolleen Kelly, Niko Maviano, Kristin Foster, Susan McDonald, Heather Scheel, Jen Burman, and Tim Joyce. I loved working with you all. But wait, there's more! A big "Mahalo Nui Loa" (that's hawaiian, folks) to Alisa Bell, Amy Chudik, Tricia Collatz, Dan Donovan, Mariana Farrell, Eric Fink, Caroline Mattis, Shawn McCarthy, Iliana Mitchell, Steve Rodenborn, Sam Secrest, Jen Shmikler and Jeff Wasserman for dropping in and lending a hand with captions, typing, layout and inventory. Cheers to Charlie Kranz for his stylin' graphics. A big hug to William Jones for his awesome photography. A standing ovation for Christine Wiegand's amazing cover and artwork! We can't forget our advisors: Dr. Kay Felkins and Katie Montalto. (Katie, thanks for letting us kidnap your MAC for a few weeks!) I've probably missed a few names, so "Merci" to anyone who did grunt work like: run to Rinaldo's, change the music, or give back rubs and massages. Random thanks to the mother cat who decided to have kittens in our office and to the musical talents of Peter Gabriel, Sarah McLachlan, etc. A million BACI to everyone for helping to capture the essence of our european adventure in this year's book. Bravo Gang!

For a time, we came together.
Leaving behind
Our families, our friends, our lives.
We arrived in Rome as weary travelers,
Strangers among strangers in a foreign land,
Left here and expected to call it home.
We were a bit nervous,
Maybe even scared.
But we were here.

For a time, we traveled.
We fumbled through a myriad of languages,
Amassed piles of useless coins,
Changed trains more
And clothing less.
We drank local wine in small cafes
And litre beers in massive halls.
We “toga-ed” by night and “siesta-ed” by day.
We laughed.
We shared our dreams and our anxieties,
Our lives and our loves,
And told all we’d “never” done.
Some of us even studied.

Now, for a time,
Some of us must leave.
As others remain,
We cannot allow distance to make us forget
That for a short time
Rome was our home
And Europe our backyard.
We must remember
All that we have been given
And all that we have given each other.
That we are young and free and alive,
That we have a spirit
Which we must never lose.
The dreams that have been born here
We cannot let die.
Because in our hearts we hold
The laughter and tears we’ve shared,
And the friendships we’ve started.
Because, my friends, it really has just begun.
