Notes

The form of this Mass is in three parts: Introito, Kyrie, and Gradual.

Although this score is catalogued as "complete," there are multiple, incomplete, and diverse versions of the parts. There nine fragmentary versions of the soprano part, three versions of the alto part in a less fragmentary state than soprano; five version of the tenor part, mostly in incomplete form, and one version of the bass. The orchestral section required some reconstruction and completion based on the specific context of the vocal parts and its harmony.
